The Mexican invasion has so far cost the lives of 6 Americans, and 125 bandits have been slain.

The town of Ade, Indiana, named for the humorist, was wiped off the map by fire Thursday. It was noted for its flouring interests.

Chas. C. Trabue has been indicted for wilful murder in Nashville and may go on trial June 6 for killing Harry S. Stokes on April 26th.

Gov. Ferguson, of Texas, has issued a Mexican manifesto that out-Wattersons Marse Henry. They are right. Let's intervene, even if it leads to annexation.

They are after Brandeis again, but the more the gang fights him the stronger it makes him with the people, who believe the President knows a good man when he sees him.

Harry Stokes, who was killed in Nashville, carried $130,000 of life insurance. He set aside $10,000 in his will to continue the fight against grafting, in the event he did not live to finish it.

Two Mexican "snipers" at Bo-quillas, one of them a notorious "bad man" named De La Garza, opened fire on an American sentinel. The soldier returned their fire with such success that he killed both Mexicans.

Grace Giffard, the Irish girl who was allowed to wed Joseph Plunkett one hour before his execution, wore widow's weeds at the ceremony.
Plunkett had barely time to settle all of his property on his wife when he was led forth and shot.

The Navy Department has announced that three Kentuckians have passed examinations for admission to the Naval Academy. The midshipmen-elect are: Albert B. Cook, of Falmouth; Bradley Railey, of Lexington, and Maurice Montgomery, of Georgetown.

The British are realizing at last the lack of wisdom in slaughtering the Irish leaders, when a liberal policy would have restored a loyal feeling.
Premier Asquith has gone in person to Ireland to try to pacify the enraged people. All Ireland is boiling with indignation.

A Berlin dispatch is explaining the failure to take Verdun by claiming that the French have 800,000 men to 400,000 Germans and the "tenacity with which the French hold on to their trenches." This reads like the Kaiser is getting scarce of men and is about to admit the foolishness of attacking impregnable fortifications with an inferior force.

Denver at a special election Tuesday returned to the mayoralty form of government, after less than two years under the commission form and Robert W. Speer, former mayor, was elected to that office by a majority of 3,000 votes. Commission government did not meet the expectations of the people as to economy and good government. The success of commission government depends on the commissioners. The principle is all right.

Strike Threatened.

Delegates from forty-one local miners' unions of Western Kentucky, in session at Central City Tuesday, voted to refuse the operators' ultimatum of the present scale, but with conditions which they say amount to a reduction. Unless they get the present scale and conditions they threaten to strike.

Death of E. W. Walker.

Mr. E. W. Walker, who was paralyzed on Wednesday, died yesterday

BIG REVIVAL NEARS END

Dr. Thacker Has Sustained
His High Reputation As An Evangelist.

SPECIAL SUNDAY SERVICE

Meeting Will Close With a Tabernacle Meeting
At Night.

The revival meeting that is being conducted by the Westminster church has been successful in every way.
Dr. J. E. Thacker, of Norfolk, Va., one of the best evangelists in the South, is leading the meeting, and is assisted most ably by Mr. James W.
Jelks, chorus leader and soloist.

The services have been held in the tabernacle and have been drawing large and enthusiastic crowds. Dr.
Thacker is an evangelist of the highest class. In his work there is nothing of the objectionable features that are sometimes present in modern evangelism. His sermons are all direct and to the point, they are illustrated from the vast fields of literature and Biblical history, and little of sen-timentalism or emotionalism is allowed to creep in.

In style he is logical at all times.
His sermons show a careful preparation, and are presented in such a pleasing and orderly form that they are easy to follow and hard to forget.
His address is most pleasing. Of excellent intellect, thorough education, and polished in speech and manners, he at all times presents an epitome of a christian gentleman.

Mr. James W. Jelks, the soloist and chorus leader, has all the qualities that render him a valuable and proper co-worker of Dr. Thacker. He possesses a delightful personality, is a good mixer, and has made many friends during his stay in this city.
He is a combination of wit, enthusiasm, ability and concentration that make him especially capable and valuable. He has a highly cultivated, attractive voice, and usually rewards his audience with two solos each night.

Through his efficient leadership he has built up a choir of exceptional merit. Most of the best voices of the city are represented at each meeting.

The results of the meeting, which are now almost concluded have been most encouraging. Over 600 professions and reconsecrations have been made. In view of the fact of a recent revival, this is indeed a wonderful record, and speaks for the ability of those in charge.

There will be no services to-night.
On tomorrow there will be double services—a special men and boys meeting in the afternoon at 3:00 o'clock, and the regular and concluding meeting Sunday night at 7:45. The afternoon subject will be, "What Constitutes a Fool." As these two meetings are the final ones of the revival, a record crowd is expected.

Wants His Money Back.

Henderson, Ky., May 10.—The suit of C. B. Hester, aged farmer, against Mrs. Ara Belle Walker, is in progress in circuit court. The defendant is seeking a judgment against Mrs. Walker for $1,600 alleged to have been loaned her upon promise to marry him. The plaintiff is 70, while the defendant is 49. The case was tried at the January term and the jury failed to reach a verdict.

Fire Damage Repaired

BREAK OF CONFERENCES

Obregon, and Scott Refer Adjustment of U. S. Mexican Relations to Diplomats.

GEN. CARRANZA BLAMED

First Chief Refused To Lend Assent--Does Not Mean
Rupture in Relations.

El Paso, Tex., May 12.—After almost two weeks of discussion the conference of Gens. Hugh L. Scott, Frederick Funston and Gen. Alvaro Obregon, Mexican minister of war, over American troop disposition in Mexico, came to an end Thursday night without any agreement being reached.

The whole matter was referred back to the American and de facto governments to be settled through diplomatic channels. To-night the situation is almost exactly where it stood before the conferences began.
The Mexican government still insists on the withdrawal of Gen. Pershing's column upon a certain date and wants that date to come quickly. It is known that Gen. Obregon has been willing to make concessions to reach an agreement with the American conferenees. He has been overruled, however, by the first chief, Gen. Carranza and his advisers. After practically conceding the demands of the American conferees, he was compelled to reverse his attitude.

ANOTHER RAID ATTEMPTED.

Marathon, Tex., May 12.—Mexican bandits again crossed into American territory last night and attacked civilians and soldiers. The raid was made four miles north of Boquillas at an ore terminal station and directly behind Maj. Langhorne's column which up to that time had not crossed into Mexico. After a short skirmish the bandits fled.

WITTY TRIAL MONDAY.

Claud Witty, the negro who killed a white boy named Ezra Samples in Hopkins county and has been in jail here for safe keeping, was taken to Madisonville for trial Tuesday, but the trial was set over to next Monday and Witty was brought back here until that time. A Madisonville dispatch says Attorney John Feland will defend Witty.

ARMLESS WONDER HITS A MAN.

Frank E. Fithen, the "armless wonder" who was here recently, ran over a man in Louisville while doing stunts with an automobile. Irvin Lawson, aged 19, was thrown by his mule that scared at Fithen's automobile and dragged him in front of the machine as he was clinging to the bridle. Lawson may not die from his hurts. The armless driver of the motor car was accompanied by his wife. He claims he was powerless to avert the accident, as the victim fell just in front of the wheels.

THIRTEENTH BUT NO JINX

Athenaeum Banquet in Many Respect an Unusual Success.

NOTHING BUT PLEASURE

Attendance Slightly Under
Some That Have Been Held.

In spite of the absence of eight of the 30 members, due to illness or unavoidable absence, the thirteenth annual banquet of the Athenaeum was in some respects the best one yet held.

The weather was ideal, the arrangements faultless in detail, the menu excellent and well served and the program one of the best rendered at any of the past functions. Messrs.
Noe & Son were ahead of time in the dining room arrangements and the only hitch was a slight delay due to late arrivals. There were two long tables running north and south. The speakers were in prominent seats at the ends of the tables.

President Frank Rives, the toastmaster, occupied a seat at the south end of the table on the east side of the dining room. Covers were laid for 87 and nearly every chair was occupied with a brilliant assemblage of ladies and gentlemen. They entered the dining room at 8:35 and the invocation was pronounced by Rev. J. N.
Jessup.

The meal was served in three courses, promptly and expeditiously, occupying just one hour. It was in Hotel Latham's best style, abundant, well prepared and elegantly served. The tables were beautifully decorated with roses, carnations, lilies and ferns and Blakemore's orchestra played at intervals.

The speaking program began at 9:40 and was concluded at 11:30, exactly on time. Every moment of the time was filled with pleasure. President Rives presided gracefully and after a short review of the society's past history presented the first speaker. His introductions in each case were brief, appropriate and happy.

TURKS CLAIM SUCCESSES

Infantry Action at Verdun
Gives Way to Artillery--- Air Chief Killed.

London, May 12.—The infantry actions in the region of Verdun have again given way to artillery bombardments, the most violent of which was directed against the French positions in the Caillette wood and their second lines on the right bank of the Meuse.
Bombardments also have taken place along the front held by the Belgians, and mining operations and artillery duels have predominated on the British front. A severe artillery duel is in progress around the Hohenzol-lern redoubt between the British and Germans. The British and Germans on the western line are keeping up mutual bombardments at various points and similar conditions prevail in the fighting between the Austrian and Italians in the mountainous region of the Austro-Italian front.

Constantinople reports that in the Caucasus region around Mount Kope, the Turks, in an attack drove the Russians from positions about 9 1/2 miles in extent and forced them to retreat eastward and likewise to the southeast of Mamahatun, put the Russians to flight.

Berlin, May 12.—Col. Pastini, a widely known Italian aeronaut, who was competitor in the international balloon race in Paris in 1913, was killed recently near Gorizia when his airship was shot down, according to Bologna Resto del Carlino, the Overseas news agency states.

Col. Pastini was chief of the Italian airship brigade.

BIGAMY CHARGE IS PREFERRED

Man Who Married In Crofton is Arrested in North Carolina.

O. H. Robinson, of near Crofton, caused the arrest of G. C. Baldwin a few days ago at Asheville, N. C., on a charge of bigamy. About six years ago, Baldwin, who was then engaged in work for a construction company on the L. & N. railroad near Crofton, married Miss Maud Robinson, a sister of O. H. Robinson. It is said that they lived together there for two years and then went to Nashville, where Mr. Robinson claim his sister was deserted. Baldwin was traced to North Carolina and it is said that he is the same man who married a Miss Ingle, of Asheville, since his marriage to Mr. Robinson's sister.
Baldwin was placed in jail in default of a $1,000 bond.

Smythe Family Scores.

Sergeant Smythe, of Troop A, Fourteenth Cavalry, is just a plain regular army man and so he's not in line for an iron, a Legion of Honor or a Victoria cross. All he did was what was expected of him. But the doing of it involved a fight of twelve hours against a force that outnumbered him ten to one, the bringing of his dead and the saving of his wounded, though he was himself wounded, and, more important still, sticking to it until relief came and the attacking force was routed.

Sergeant Smythe will wear no medal, but to a layman's way of thinking he has earned the right to.—Louisville Times.

years from the beginning of the invasion.Dr. D. W. Batson, former president of Kentucky Wesleyan college, editor of the Central Methodist and one of the best known educators in the South, died at Lexington Wednesday. He was 65 years old.A royal commission has been appointed to investigate the Irish rebellion, which now seemingly has been entirely put down. Premier Asquith has informed the House of Commons that there seems to be no necessity for further extreme measures against the rebels.The French have held firm against another furious attack at Verdun, in which the slaughter of Germans was appalling. After two months of the fiercest fighting, the Germans have made small gains and have not been able to hold all trenches captured. No wonder there is more talk of a desire for peace.Bank stock will be assessed on full valuation and surplus, undivided profits and other assets at 80 per cent. of their book value, according to the decision of the State Board of Assessment and Valuation. The board first determined to assess all assets at their full value, but bankers from a dozen cities protested against such action.Ireland is in a furor over the military execution of 12 of the rebel leaders and the imprisonment of 67 more.
It has also come to light that F. S.
Skeffington, editor of the Irish Citizen, and two others were shot without a formal trial. Baron Wimborne, lord lieutenant, has resigned. The nationalists have adopted strong resolutions demanding that executions cease and this appears to have been done, as two rebels are awaiting execution.With the Republican convention a month off, the indications give Hughes a preference for the nomination with Roosevelt a strong second, while Root, McCall and Burton are factors.
The Ford instructions are a joke.
The party managers want Root and Roosevelt is understood so be for Hughes if he fails himself. It looks like Hughes and Roosevelt will control the convention if they operate to a common end. In that event Roosevelt may be expected by his stronger will force to set the jurist aside and nominate himself and try throwing a consolation sop to Burton or perhaps Ford for second place. Signs point to another Republican split.

Smart Decorations.

Among the decorations which will be used by smart folk this year, and which are very useful when natural flowers cannot be had, are the paper water lilies and cherry boughs sold in the Japanese shops. These, however, generally go with Japanese crockery, and they are most often used at the tea given with the afternoon reception.
When real water lilies can be had at the florist's, it is not uncommon to drop one or two in the punch bowl, where they look pretty and suitable.

More Serviceable Umbrella Jars.

By placing a large carriage sponge in the bottom of an umbrella jar you will prevent umbrellas from striking the bottom of the jar and breaking it.
The sponge will also absorb the water from a dripping umbrella.

INSURING GOOD CRUST

CERTAIN RULES MUST BE OB-SERVED IN PIE MAKING.No Reason in the World Why Delicious Form of Dessert Should Ever Have Been Said to Be Indigestible.Somewhere along in the late eighties or early nineties a loud voice was heard denouncing the great American pie. Pie-making and pie-eating were among the chief industries of our fore-parents, and the pronouncement was made that here was to be found the reason for the various assortment of human ills from which they suffered.
They did not know they were pie-poisoned. They ate the crisp-crusts, fruit-filled dainties and enjoyed them;
they went on their heedless ways ignorant of the crimes they were committing, but according to biblical prophecy their sins were being visited upon their descendants and we were enduring the curse of weakened diges-tions because of those pie-ous ancestors.And so the fear of pies was born in us, and it is a heroic hostess who will serve pie as the dessert of a dinner party. If we calmly analyze a pie, though it does not seem so deadly a thing: a little flour, fat, water or milk, and fruit usually, and if these ingredients are skillfully combined, we are willing to take oath as to the wholesome-ness of the result.Here are some simple rules which will insure a good crust, and if we follow them in making our pies we may be able to restore the pie to its old popularity.The general formula for crust is one and one-half cups of flour, one-half cup of fat, one and one-half tea-spoonfuls of salt, liquid to moisten.
This will make one two-crust pie or two one-crust pies. The ingredients must be kept cold. Since the only leavening agent in the crusts is air, and cold air expands on heating, it is reasonable to suppose that the colder the air the greater the expansion and the flakier the crusts. Do not handle the crusts any more than absolutely necessary. Cut the crust a little larger than the tin to allow for shrinking in baking, and be sure to leave no air bubbles between the paste and the tin.Pastry and modified flour give the best results, and in the case of these less fat is needed. The best crusts are made with one part of lard to four parts of pastry flour. When butter is used two tablespoonfuls more fat to the cupful of flour should be added.
Butter in a crust gives it the best flavor, according to some, but lard gives the flakier crust and a good flavor.More liquid is needed with bread flour than with pastry flour. The larger the amount of water the less fat is needed. A very good way to keep the undercrust crisp is to spread egg-white over it and sprinkle with cornstarch.

Scalloped Parsnips.

Four or five good-sized parsnips, one tablespoonful butter, one teaspoonful salt, two tablespoonfuls milk, one teaspoonful black pepper, two tablespoonfuls finely chopped onion, bread crumbs.Boil the parsnips until tender, and mash smooth. Add the butter, salt, pepper, onion, and milk. Butter a baking-pan and cover the bottom with a layer of parsnips. Cover the top with bread crumbs and dot with butter. Brown in the oven and serve hot.

Cherry Mold.

Wash and soak half a pound of dried cherries. Sift three tablespoonfuls of flour into a basin, gradually add two cupfuls of milk, half a teaspoonful of salt, three tablespoonfuls of sugar, one tablespoonful of melted butter, three well-beaten eggs and the cherries. Pour into a buttered mold lined with cherries, cover with buttered paper and steam for one hour and a half. Turn out and serve with sweet sauce.

To Vary the Children's Supper.

A nice supper dish for the children may be made by rubbing a cupful of raisins and prunes cooked together—or either of them separately—and a cupful of rice through the colander, adding the yolk of an egg, a little sugar and squeeze of lemon, thinning with water and cooking a few minutes.
Chopped raisins worked into any soft cheese is a nutritious filling for a sandwich.—Woman's World.

Variety Salad.

Take three cupfuls finely shaved cabbage, half cupful diced apples, one-quarter cupful diced celery, one cupful grated pineapple, boiled salad dressing, lettuce; mix together the cabbage, apple, celery and pineapple, moisten with salad dressing and serve in lettuce leaves; garnish with whipped cream.

When You Bake a Cake.

To prevent cake from sticking to tins when baked, grease the tins, then dust them with flour. Lightly beat out the loose flour, leaving only what sticks to the grease. This does away with the old-fashioned method of lining the pans with greased paper.

Old Lady's Sage Advice.

Knoxville, Tenn.—Mrs. Mamie Towe, of 102 W. Main Street, this before I began to take Cardui, you would not think I was the same person. Six doctors failed to do me good and my friends thought I would die. I could hardly get out of bed or walk a step. At last an old lady advised me to take Cardui, and now I can go most anywhere.

Not Guilty.

Mr. Gap Johnson of Rumpus Ridge leaned languidly over the top rail of his fence and gazed pensively at a hog lying in the road. A motor car came skallyhooting down the hill and ran over the recumbent porker. Something went wrong with the mechanism, the car swerved from the highway, plunged down into a considerable hollow and landed wrong side up with the occupants unconscious beneath it.
Mr. Johnson presently strolled over and looked calmly down into the pit.
"Say," he finally called. "You folks don't have to hide under there. That hog was dead when you hit it. The last automobile that came along killed it, and the feller paid for it."—Kansas

Icing That Will Keep Soft.

Add a pinch of baking powder to the whites of the eggs that you are going to use in your white frosting for cakes. Do this before beating them.
Then pour the boiling hot sirup over the beaten whites in the usual way and your icing will not get hard.

Almond Cookies.

Yolks of six eggs, one and one-half cupfuls of sugar, three-quarters of a cupful of butter, one cupful of almonds chopped; one tablespoonful of cinnamon, three cupfuls of flour. Beat well, drop small spoonfuls on a well-greased pan and bake lightly.

Sauce for Cutlets and Croquettes.

Two and a half tablespoonfuls of butter, one-fourth cupful cornstarch or one-half cupful of flour, one cupful milk, one-fourth teaspoonful salt, few grains of pepper.

Foamy Pudding Sauce.

Have one cupful of milk boiling, beat two eggs and one cupful sugar until light, stir into boiling milk and set in steam of teakettle 15 or 20 minutes.

enough flour to make an ordinary sponge—about one and one-half cupfuls. Beat until perfectly smooth.
Cover and set aside in a warm place to rise for fifty minutes, or until light.
Add sugar and butter creamed, egg beaten, lemon extract and about two and one-half cupfuls of flour, or enough to make a moderately soft dough, and the salt with the last of the flour.
Knead until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl, cover and set aside in a warm place to rise until double in bulk—about one hour. Turn out on board and shape as clover-leaf rolls, or any fancy twist. Let rise until light, about one hour. Bake in hot oven fifteen minutes.Oatmeal Muffins.—One cake yeast, one-quarter cupful lukewarm water, three tablespoonfuls sugar, two tablespoonfuls butter, one cupful hot milk, one cupful rolled oats, one-half cupful whole wheat flour, one-half cupful sifted white flour, one teaspoonful salt.Boil oats and butter in milk one minute. Let stand until lukewarm.
Dissolve yeast and sugar in lukewarm water, and combine the two mixtures.
Add flour and salt, and beat well. The batter should be thick enough to drop heavily from the spoon. Cover and let rise until light, about one hour, in a moderately warm place. Fill well-greased muffin pans two-thirds full.
Let rise about forty minutes, bake twenty-five minutes in a moderately hot oven.Dinner Rolls.—One cake yeast, one cupful milk, scalded and cooled, one tablespoonful sugar, three cupfuls sifted flour, white of one egg, two tablespoonfuls lard or butter, melted, one-half teaspoonful salt.Dissolve yeast and sugar in lukewarm milk. Add one and one-half cupfuls flour and beat until smooth, then add white of egg, well beaten, lard or butter, remainder of flour, or enough to make a moderately firm dough, and the salt. Knead lightly, using as little flour in kneading as possible. Place in well-greased bowl.
Cover and set to rise in a warm place, free from draft, until double in bulk—about two hours. Mold into rolls the size of walnuts. Place in well-greased pans, protect from draft, and let rise one-half hour, or until light. Glaze with white of egg, diluted with water.
Bake ten minutes in a hot oven.English Bath Buns.—Two cakes yeast, one-half cupful milk, scalded and cooled, one tablespoonful sugar, one-half cupful butter, melted, four eggs, four cupfuls sifted flour, one-half teaspoonful salt, five tablespoonfuls sugar, one cupful almonds, chopped.Dissolve yeast and one tablespoonful sugar in lukewarm milk. Add butter, eggs unbeaten, flour gradually, and the salt, beating thoroughly. This mixture should be thick, but not stiff enough to handle. Cover and let rise in warm place one and one-half hours, or until light. Sprinkle balance of sugar and almonds over top, mix very lightly and drop into well-greased muffin pans. Cover and let rise until light, which should be in about one-half hour. Bake fifteen to twenty minutes in a moderately hot oven. These buns should be rough in appearance.

Raisin Pie.

Add to one quart of boiling water two dessert spoonfuls of cornstarch dissolved in half cupful of cold water, add half cupful sugar (or more if preferred sweet), level teaspoonful of salt, butter size of a walnut, two tablespoonfuls vinegar or juice of one lemon. Add one pound seeded raisins.
Let set while you are mixing your crusts. This makes two good-sized pies.Children Cry

WAR! What Is It?
All About?HAS the whole world gone stark mad over a very foolish and trivial question? Are swords rattling, cannon rumbling, mailed armour glistening just because Russia wanted to show her love for the little brother—Serbia? Tear aside the curtain of Europe's politics and see the grim and sinister game of chess that is being played. See upon what a slim, yet desperate, excuse the sacred lives of millions are being sacrificed. Read the history of the past one hundred years, as written by some of the greatest authorities the world has ever known, and learn the naked, shameful truth.

BIRDS' NESTS A DELICACY

Edible Dear to Chinese Constitutes an Important Part in the Export Trade of Siam.

An important item in the export trade of Siam consists of edible nests of swifts, or swiftlets, as they are also called. The principal markets for this trade are China, Hongkong and Singapore. In Hongkong, it is said, the demand often exceeds the supply, and prices range from $15 to $25 per pound, according to quality. The first nests constructed in the season, which are composed of pure saliva, are held superior for eating purposes. They are gathered on completion before the eggs are laid. The birds then build again, and the second nests, in which the saliva is mixed with rootlets, grass, etc., and often shows traces of blood, from the efforts made to produce saliva, are also taken on completion. A third nest is then constructed of extraneous substances cemented together and the whole fastened to the wall by a little saliva, the flow of which seems to be practically exhausted. The birds are allowed to rear their young in these nests, which are afterward destroyed by the nest gatherers, so as to compel the construction of fresh nests the following year. Edible nests of swiftlets are found in the Malay archipelago, Australia, and many of the Pacific islands. In northern Borneo certain caves inhabited by these swiftlets produce $25,000 worth of nests every year and show no diminution in the quantity, despite systematic robbery for seven generations.

FOUND PATIENT A PROBLEM

Authorities of New York Aquarium Will Admit That Sea Cow Was a Hard Proposition to Handle.

The big manatee or sea cow, which disports in a 20-foot tank for the edification of visitors at the New York aquarium, has been troubled with a salt water rash which called for treatment by the fish doctors. That was easier said than done. The manatee weighs 900 pounds and is as strong as a horse and far more difficult to handle.

To scoop the sea cow out of the tank with a landing net and a derrick did not seem practical. To treat the big patient in the water was equally impossible. So they let all the water out of the tank and, while the manatee flopped helplessly at the bottom, the doctors went to work. The treatment was a success and the 12-foot exhibit is now as well as ever.

The sea cow was caught in the waters off Florida and brought to New York. It is a fastidious eater, showing a preference for eel-grass and lettuce leaves. It has no front teeth. Its strength lies in its beaverlike tail.—New York World.

Primitive Christian Hymn Book.

A famous English scholar, Dr. Rendel Harris, has discovered a venerable Syriac version of "The Odes and Psalms of Solomon," a collection of ancient hymns that are almost as old as the books of the New Testament in their present form, and in part even older. In speaking of his discovery Doctor Harris said:

"In this little book, if my judgment is correct, we have for the first time recovered a book of hymns of the early Christian community, and these hymns are marked by all the characteristics that we associate with that great spiritual revival that marks the early Christian church. They give us a key to primitive Christian experience, just as the rediscovery of the Olney hymns, or a volume of early Methodist hymns, or Saint Bernard's Latin hymns—supposing any or all of these to be lost—would help us to understand what really went on at the Methodist revival in England, or in the great monastic revivals of the middle ages.

"The little book in its first form can scarcely be later than 150 A. D., and it may be earlier. It may be as early as the uncanonical but very valuable 'Teaching of the Apostles.' In any case, it brings us so close to the days and the spirit of the New Testament writings that when we read them, or sing them, we are in the aureole of the first and great confession.—Youth's Companion.

Gold You Can See Through.

Gold, which becomes so important in war time, is an extremely interesting substance in many ways. It can be beaten so thin that 125,000 leaves of it piled on top of one another would only reach an inch in height. When beaten into the thinnest possible sheet it becomes transparent.

Gold, too, can be drawn into the finest wire of any metal. Michael Faraday, the great British chemist, once calculated that he could make a gold wire from four sovereigns long enough to go around the earth.

It is because gold can be beaten so thin that tobaccoists are able to use real gold for tipping cigarettes, and yet not charge an exorbitant price for them.

Good Illustration.

The Bachelor (after the proposal)—But are you quite sure you believe in second love?

The Widow—Certainly, my dear. Now suppose a woman buys a pound of sugar; it is sweet, isn't it?

The Bachelor—Yes, of course. But—The Widow—Well, when that's gone she naturally wants another pound—and the second pound is just as sweet as the first, isn't it.

COULD MAKE A GOOD GUESS

Young Man Was Not Sure as to Size, but Was Willing to Take a Chance on It.

Into a men's furnishing store stepped a young man warily, almost timidly. He lacked the air of confidence of the man who is about to purchase a tie or a handkerchief or a collar. Eagerly the genial floorwalker pounced upon him and the prospective customer's first words explained everything.

"Have you anything suitable for a young lady?" he asked, looking about dazedly at the rows of shirt boxes. "Something for her birthday, you know?"

"Well, I should say we have. Step right this way, please. Miss Apperson, will you show this gentleman some ladies' hose, or"—he added, as he noted the inquirer's pitiable confusion, "perhaps he would prefer to see some of those near-silk ladies' coat sweaters?"

He would, he certainly would, and when he found a man in charge at the sweater counter he became almost himself again. The sweater idea seemed to strike him favorably, and for several minutes he inspected color combinations and felt fabrics. Finally the clerk dropped him into hot water again.

"About what size does the young lady wear?"

It was a poser and entirely unexpected. The young man gazed at a dummy figure on which a sweater coat was displayed, then walked up to it, circled it with his arm, and nodded: "About this size, I think."

BUG MAKES THE BEAN JUMP

When One Holds Seed Over Fire the Insect Is Impelled to Give a Dance.

It is a bug which puts the jump in the Mexican jumping bean. You are probably acquainted with the bean. Hold it over a fire until it is warmed a little and it will roll around and jump like a thing alive. And it is alive, too. A little plump, white insect is inside the shell of the bean, the larva of a moth called the carpopap.

The insect was hatched inside the bean from an egg which the moth planted there while the shell was still soft. About one-fifth of the interior of the shell is occupied by the larva, the rest by the bean.

To make a cozy home, the larva spins a silk thread and lines the hollow shell with it. Later in winter it cuts a tiny round door through the shell and strengthens it with silk, and about this time of year it forces its way out the door and flies away, for now it is a moth.

So it is the insect and not the bean that jumps. When you hold the bean over the fire it warms his feet and he dances for your entertainment.

Phenomena of Sleep.

The myriad phenomena of sleep, of insomnia, of dreams, of somnambulism, of somniloquism (sleep walking and sleep talking) are inextricably interwoven, and from the beginning of human reason have been among the most fascinating of studies, though always baffling and evasive. In lieu of any clear definition of sleep physiologists say that it is induced by an increased absorption of oxygen, our inhaling gas, with an increase of the exhalation of carbon dioxide, the latter being the transformation from oxygen in the process of breathing. The physiological results are slower and more regular respiration, slower pulsation, lowered blood pressure, the glands of the skin more active and cessation of voluntary muscular activity.

India's Love of Gold.

Complaints of India's appetite for gold began in the time of the Carthaginians, who in the fourth century B. C. disposed of gold they procured from Spain to that country. Pliny tells of unavailing protests made in the first year of the Christian era of exportations of the precious metal from the Roman empire, nearly $15,000,000 of it being sent annually to India. Queen Elizabeth, in 1600, tried in vain to counteract the flow of gold from her country to India.

BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCH NO. 77

Luther H. Smithson, Who Is Developing Hidden Resources.

Within the last few years there has grown up in Hopkinsville a new enterprise that is succeeding beyond the fondest hopes of its enterprising promoter. Situated five and a half miles south of the city is the Church Hill

L. H. SMITHSON.

Mineral well, owned by Mr. Luther H. Smithson, that has a mineral water of the finest quality, in an inexhaustible quantity, that has already won its way into popular favor in no less than a dozen states.

Mr. Smithson started by delivering the water to customers at first, in the city, in a modest way, but this branch of his business has grown by leaps and bounds and he now delivers it twice a week in a wagon regularly equipped for the business.

VIEW OF THE WELL.

At the same time he has built up a mail order business of considerable proportions, that is gradually being extended into many distant localities.

A word about the well itself is not out of place. The well was bored as far back as 1897 and is 105 feet deep. The first 30 feet was through clay and the remainder through solid limestone. A strong stream of water was found that at once rose to a depth of 60 feet in the well and has so remained for 19 years.

Mr. Smithson and his neighbors soon appreciated the medicinal qualities of the water, which was pleasant to the taste and found to be very valuable for many ailments, particularly stomach troubles.

In 1906 a specimen of the water was sent away for chemical analysis and its real value ascertained and in 1913, Mr. Smithson, at the urgent request of many would-be patrons, put the water on the market at prices low enough to be within the reach of all.

One gallon contains 398.4 grains of mineral matter (6.83 grains per liter) composed of calcium sulphate, magnesium sulphate, sodium sulphate and sulphate of iron (copperas). Also a small amount of sodium chloride, (salt) and distinct traces of potassium and lithium sulphates, strontium and silica. It is classed as a strong chalybeate water. It is a distinct medicinal water, of a sanitary condition and safe for use in moderation. If used too freely it becomes a purgative. It has a great deal of hydrogen sulphide in it and becomes of a milky appearance after standing awhile, but does not lose its good qualities for a long time. Mr. Smithson cites an instance of a sealed jug that was left by oversight in a cellar for a whole winter and in the spring the water was still good to drink. This makes it capable of being shipped long distances without losing its strength or medicinal value.

Luther H. Smithson, the enterprising owner of the well, was born in Lunenburg county, Va., Mar. 8, 1858. He was one of a large family of brothers and came with the rest of the family to this county when 9 years of age. He has devoted his life to farming and owns a handsome tract of farm land in one of the county's finest agricultural sections. His children have grown to maturity and some of them married and Mr. Smithson is contentedly settled down for the ripe old age that is characteristic of his family, surrounded by his children and grandchildren and enjoying the respect of his neighbors and the esteem of many friends.

In his well he has a source of revenue that will put him on Easy street and be there as a heritage to his posterity.

Mr. Smithson is a careful business man, liberal in his ideas, attentive to his own affairs and devoted to his family, his church, his county and his town. He is doing a work all his own in supplying a distinct need of the city and giving it additional fame in distant cities. May the stream at the bottom of his pump, like Tennyson's Brook, "Flow on and on forever."

$100 Reward, $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

PROTEST WAS EFFECTIVE

Urgent Representations Made of Unfairness of Increases.

Judge Walter Knight, Lucian J. Harris, W. J. McGee and James Breathitt, Jr., for the county; S. L. Cowherd, Lucian H. Davis and J. O. Cook for the Hopkinsville Business Men's Association and Judge Jas. Breathitt for the city left for Frankfort Thursday to appear before the State Board of Equalization to protest against proposed raises of 10 per cent on personal property and farm lands and 2 per cent on town lots.

The committees made a determined effort and succeeded in getting all raises removed.

RECITAL

Given By Miss Lela May Wilson, In Music.

Miss Lela May Wilson gave a piano recital on the evening of May 4th, which was heard by an appreciative audience. The program included selections from the French, Russian and American schools. Miss Wilson is a pupil of Miss Katherine Follansby and has finished the prescribed course in piano with the required study of theory, harmony and history of music.

Mrs. John T. Waller, a pupil of Miss Anna Virginia Trice, gave three selections in a very pleasing manner.

Miss Wilson's playing was artistic in every way. Her technique and interpretation demonstrated a deep and thorough training, and showed her to be possessed of great talent in this field.

THE COMING ENTERTAINMENT.

Announcement of the coming Eastern Star entertainment at the Tabernacle May 19, has created quite a stir in musical circles and the attractive program soon to be announced containing as it does some of the most popular and capable local talent is looked forward to with much interest.

The fact that Miss Eannie Phelps is to preside as Judge of the great Suffragette Court and Mrs. J. T. Hall is to be the able prosecutor, not only gives pleasing anticipation, but has started a flurry among the so-called sterner sex who tremble at this practical demonstration of the superior ability of the "female of the species" to manage our public affairs. However it will be a riot of fun from start to finish and already the initial sale of tickets insure that the Tabernacle will be crowded to its doors, especially since the price for admission has been placed at the bargain price of twenty-five cents and fifteen cents for children.

The second part of the evening's entertainment will be a funny one-act piece entitled "Whiskers" and will have for its dramatis personae some of the most popular young men and women of the city.

The minstrel show, which will be the last number on the program, will be a feast of merriment and a round of jolly fun.

The Western State Hospital nine won the game of ball from the High School team Wednesday afternoon. The score was 2 to 1.

MASONIC CENTENNIAL

The 100th Anniversary Celebration in Hopkinsville Will be a Notable Event.

Arrangements are about completed for the celebration here of the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of the Masonic fraternity in Hopkinsville. The celebration will be held on Monday, May 22. As a preliminary to the celebration and as a part of the centennial program, the Hopkinsville Lodge F. & A. M., together with all neighboring and visiting Masons, will attend divine services at the First Christian Church on Sunday evening, May 21, where the address will be delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. N. Jessup.

It is expected that not only the members of the Hopkinsville Lodge, but many members of the order will attend the celebration from every lodge in Christian county and from neighboring counties. Invitations have gone out to every lodge in Christian county, and also to lodges in Earlington, Madisonville, Elkton, Princeton, Guthrie, Trenton, Clarksville, Cadiz, Wallonia and other nearby towns.

The program for Monday, May 22, is as follows:

Reception Committee will meet all incoming trains. At 10:00 a. m., the parade will traverse the business district of the city, and moving south on Main will disband at Eighteenth street. There conveyances will be in waiting to take the members to the Fair Grounds. On the Fair Grounds a sumptuous barbecue dinner will be served free to all Masons and their families. After dinner a program of music and speaking will take place in the amphitheater. Besides the band music, the Foster Quartette, composed of Messrs. Foster, Wright, Barnett and Greenwood, will sing a number of selections. At the speaking program Chas. M. Meacham will be master of ceremonies. Lorenzo K. Wood will deliver the address of welcome. Speeches will be made by Grand Master T. J. Adams, Grand Senior Warden, E. W. Weathers, of Elkton, John D. Shaw, of Cadiz and others.

While the speaking is going on in the amphitheater, the teachers of Virginia Street School will have charge of the children, leading them in games, drills, etc.

In the evening all Masons will assemble at the lodge room, at 7:30 o'clock, for a social session, and to witness the third degree conferred by Grand Master, T. J. Adams.

Masons throughout the county will take note of the time and program, and be on hand early Monday morning. Will papers in neighboring towns please make mention of this celebration and help to make it a notable event?

Lake Disaster.

Confirmation of the reported loss of twenty lives in the first steamer loss on the Great Lakes this season was given by Joseph Murda, second mate of the steamer S. R. Kirby, who was rescued. He said the vessel foundered Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock off Eagle Harbor, Mich.

Perfection

The shadow of exaggeration is cast on an ad when the appellation "Perfection" is applied to the product; at least that is our version of it.

So when we tell you of HIGH ART CLOTHES, we will say what is our sincere conviction—that they are as near perfect as modern manufacturing methods, alert designing and fair-play business policy can make them.

Young men will find a host of good-looking models to select from and their seniors will be sure to find their suit made in a model in conformity with their dignity and correct in every detail. Their price is moderate when their value is considered.

It is expected that there will be another big crowd to-morrow. To-morrow will be "Mothers' Day" and all the services will be in the nature of a celebration of that event. Young ladies from the Bethany class will meet every corner at the door and supply each with a white flower to be worn in honor of the best woman that ever lived—your mother. Let all who can, wear a white flower in honor of Mothers' day.

The pastor will preach a sermon at the church hour (10:45) in celebration of Mothers' Day. There will be special music appropriate to the day. There will be no services at night on account of the tabernacle meeting.

Christian Endeavor 6:30 p. m.

Prayer meeting Wednesday night.

Monday afternoon the Intermediate and Junior boys will take a hike into the country and have a camp-fire supper in the woods. The pastor will accompany the boys. They will meet at the church at 3:00 o'clock.

HIGHEST PRICE OF SEASON.

Thos. N. Wadlington, of Trigg county, received the highest price paid for tobacco on the loose floor this season, one day this week. On West's Loose Floor he got $12 for a lot of fine leaf. As stated elsewhere, prices were highly satisfactory.

"I DON'T SUFFER ANY MORE"

"Feel Like a New Person," says Mrs. Hamilton.

New Castle, Ind.—"From the time I was eleven years old until I was seventeen I suffered each month so I had to be in bed. I had headache, backache and such pains I would cramp double every month. I did not know what it was to be easy a minute. My health was all run down and the doctors did not do me any good. A neighbor told my mother about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I took it, and now I feel like a new person. I don't suffer any more and I am regular every month."—Mrs. HAZEL HAMILTON, 822 South 15th St.

When a remedy has lived for forty years, steadily growing in popularity and influence, and thousands upon thousands of women declare they owe their health to it, is it not reasonable to believe that it is an article of great merit?

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential), Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

Miss Berry's Recital.

Miss Lulu Berry was heard Thursday evening in a senior song recital by a large gathering of Hopkinsville people. She called forth continued enthusiasm through three groups of well chosen numbers. Miss Berry revealed a lyric voice of pleasing qualities. Her voice shows considerable range and power and her work great possibilities for the future.

Miss Sellers, who assisted her, charmed the audience as usual, with her artistic rendition of three numbers of the program. Miss Edna Douglas showed an unusual ability as an accompanist.

Biggest Hydroaeroplane In The Country, Plunges Into Potomac.

Washington, May 12.—The big hydroaeroplane with which J. C. MacCauley recently established several new cross country records, was wrecked near Mount Vernon, with a probable loss of two lives and serious injuries to MacCauley and two other persons aboard. The craft plunged 100 feet into the Potomac, making three revolutions in its descent and collapsing as it struck the water.

Notice to All Democrats.

Pursuant to a resolution of the Democratic State Executive committee in Louisville, Ky., on April 14, 1916, a mass convention of Democrats of Christian county, Ky., is called to be held at the Court House in the city of Hopkinsville, Ky., at the hour of 2 o'clock p. m., on Saturday, May 20, 1916, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Democratic state convention to be held at Lexington, Ky., on Wednesday, May 24, 1916, for the purpose of selecting delegates to the Democratic national convention to be held at St. Louis, Mo., June 14, 1916.

All known Democrats, and all minors who will be legal voters at the November election, 1916, and declare their purpose to affiliate with the Democratic party are eligible to participate in said mass convention, and to be elected delegates to said state convention.

This county will be entitled to 29 delegates.

It never done no good to me But I can't drop it if I tried."

—Kipling.

"To all and each, a fair good night, And pleasing dreams and slumbers light."

—Scott.

Mr. Linton, one of the younger members, acquitted himself handsomely with a speech full of wit, eloquence, originality and wisdom. It set a high standard for those to follow.

Mr. John Stites in his discussion of Bald Facts said many bright things but none of them naughty. He grew eloquent at times, especially when discussing the ladies, and much of his speech was about the ladies.

Tom Underwood appeared in a brand new speech that sparkled with humor and teemed with philosophy. He more than sustained his reputation as an after-dinner orator of the rarest gifts.

Mr. Geo. E. Gary's subject gave him an opportunity to present a versatile address of mingled wisdom, poetry and spice. Mr. Gary's speech closed with a poetic gem that was one of his best efforts. It was not mere rhyme, but real poetry, giving evidence that the author can muse as well as amuse.

Mr. L. E. Foster, who was drafted as a substitute at the eleventh hour, four-flushed with a big roll of manuscript, but quit in twenty minutes leaving the entire audience wide awake and thoroughly pleased. He told some good jokes, complimented everybody and closed with a recital of "The Charge of the Skirt Brigade."

The speeches were uniformly good, so good in fact that the opinion was expressed by more than one guest that the society used all of its best material at one time, leaving nothing so good for another year.

The following were present: MEMBERS AND LADIES.

President and Mrs. Frank Rives, Vice Pres. and Mrs. A. H. Eckles, Secretary and Mrs. H. W. Linton and Miss Garnett, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Gary and Miss Eva Quarles, Mr. S. Y. Trimble, Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Gaither, Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Perkins, Mr. A. H. Clark and Miss Evelyn Smith, Mr. J. W. Downer and Mrs. Eager, Mr. Chas. M. Meacham, Mr. Jas. A. McKenzie, Mr. John Stites and Miss Susie Boyd, of Cadiz; Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Pettus White, Mr. and Mrs. Ira L. Smith and Miss Smith, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McReynolds and Mrs. B. O. CONVICT LEADERS OF NIGHT RIDERS

Judge Calls Grand Jury to Investigate Threats Made Against Jurors.

Madisonville, Ky., May 10.—Claiming that it had been reported to him that threats had been made against the jury which shortly after 12 o'clock this morning returned a verdict of guilty against Will Peterson and Hollie Jackson, who are alleged to have been in the raid on the negroes at Carbondale and fixing their punishment at from not less than one nor more than two years in the penitentiary, Judge Henderson this morning called the grand jury out and insisted that a thorough investigation of these threats be made and if such was the case, to indict the men who made them.

Judge Henderson also stated that evidence introduced yesterday in the case of these men showed that wilful murder had been committed on the night of the raid when a 9-year-old negro boy was killed, and asked the jury to indict those implicated in this raid. He also stated that it had been told him that during the course of the trial yesterday citizens had remained in view of the jury and witnesses and had given "night rider" signals during the day. He insisted that these parties be investigated and, if such should be the case, to return indictments.

The case of Peterson and Jackson was given the jury last night shortly before midnight and within an hour a verdict of guilty was rendered. Thirty-three others are under indictment and from evidence introduced yesterday there will probably be many others indicted. The case of Leo Sisk was called this morning.

ANOTHER CONVICTION.

Madisonville, Ky., May 12.—Within twenty minutes after the jury received the case this afternoon, a verdict of guilty, was returned and Leo Sisk, indicted as a result of the raid on negroes at Carbondale, when one was killed on the night of Oct. 25, 1914, was sentenced to the penitentiary from not less than one nor more than five years. He was in the same raid with Jackson and Peterson, convicted in the night rider trials yesterday. Curtis Jackson, accused of having been in the raid on the Todd boarding house, when several were wounded, will be tried today.

Good Dispositions.

In the Woman's Home Companion we learn that to give a baby a good disposition the first step is to keep him free from "nerves." "One mother accounted for her baby's peaceful frame of mind," we read, "by saying that until he was three months old he was ignored! That seems absurd, yet there is an element of truth in it. A baby is an excitable little being. It wants to play and be played with, and it means real self-denial on the part of a household to refrain from kissing and cuddling and romping with the baby. But the more a baby is left to itself, provided it is comfortable and well, the better for its nerves. It must sleep many long hours in fresh air, and, of course, if it is excited and stimulated, it will not want to settle down to its daily nap, nor at bedtime, after a romp, will it want to go to sleep alone and in the dark. Rest, proper food, quietness and fresh air are the things needed to establish good nerves."

LOST MONEY BY DEFECTION

Baron Nordenskjold, Tempted by Offered Honor, Made Mistake When He Accepted It.

When the late Baron Nordenskjold was at Ceylon on the way home from his journey along the northern coast of Siberia he received a telegram from the Russian government asking him whether he would accept from the czar a certain decoration as an appreciation of his services to Russia. For many days the famous explorer wavered, as he was a member of Bjornson's Antidecoration club, whose members were solemnly pledged never to accept any decoration from anybody.

Nordenskjold, however, could not resist the temptation, so he replied to the telegram in the affirmative. It is not hard to imagine his disappointment when upon reaching home a friend of his, a high official, told him the following:

"The Russian government was well aware of your antagonistic views in regard to decorations and had therefore placed in readiness 300,000 rubles to be paid you in the event of your refusing to accept the insignia, but before paying that sum they wanted to try your firmness. Russia is certainly grateful to you for your failure to live up to your pledge."

New Setting for Old House.

Many an old house has been allowed to pass into a state of disrepair, and finally has been torn down to make place for a more modern building, merely because the owner has not been able to see in the old building a possibility for the attainment of attractiveness and charm by means of a new setting. The rarest gem in a battered setting can hardly show its value. Put it in platinum and gold, modern in cut, and the same gem is a glory to its owner; provide the old house with nature's setting, in the form of judicious planting, together with tasteful garden arrangement and a pergola, and straightway it is given a new lease of beauty.—L. G. Hoyt, in the Countryside Magazine.

MAKING MONEY WITH NEEDLE

Various Ways in Which Woman Who Is Proficient Can Earn at Least Part of Her Living.

The woman who is handy with a needle need not lack employment, and if she is clever in catching artistic ideas she can make so much more money in a pleasant occupation. There is much work to be done aside from regular dressmaking, millinery and knitting.

For instance, the vocation of dressmaking is as old as the beach sands, but many odd time occupations which are distinctly new have evolved themselves from the seamstress' tasks. There is a woman in one town who works buttonholes. For many reasons she could not do regular dressmaking, but she takes in many a penny in the course of a year. People who do their own sewing but dislike the buttonholing bring the garments to her for this finishing, and even the village dressmaker often sends in a bundle of various garments to be "buttonholed" in a time of rush.

From the easy buttonholes in lingerie blouses at one cent each her prices range to two cents each in woolen dresses and motor coats and to five and sometimes ten cents a hole in corduroy, fur and heavy cloth coats. She charges according to material and the time and skill required. She does no other kind of sewing. She has found it profitable to buy by the dozen buttonhole twist and thread of the right size in a variety of standard colors, the price of which is included in her charges. Buying by the dozen she gets the material cheaper.

Another woman makes skating and motor caps and bonnets.

Lord Morley's Audience of Six.

T. P. O'Connor recalls how Lord Morley was announced on one occasion to address a meeting in a hall in Manchester which could comfortably seat 1,000 persons. "Just six men turned up, and some of these had traveled a long distance. There were some moments of grace given by the chairman, but the six men remained six, and it was decided to adjourn the meeting. But the faithful six were invited into the anteroom to have a private chat with the deserted lecturer; and, accepting the invitation, they got more than full value for their money, and more than full compensation for their disappointment."—Westminster Gazette.

Letter Writers' Busy Day.

Sunday is a big letter writing day in this village. Druggists in the apartment house section say they sell more postage stamps on Sunday than the six other days combined, according to the New York correspondent of the Pittsburgh Dispatch. Women are the principal buyers. "It is an annoyance, this stamp business," said a clerk, "but we have to accommodate those who ask for stamps. If we didn't we would lose trade." Just then a woman entered with a letter in her hand. "Will you please let me have a stamp?" she smiled. The clerk laid one on the counter and took the money. "I wish," said she, "that you would weigh this letter. Maybe it takes more than 2 cents. He weighed it. "Only 2 cents, madam," he said; then, taking the stamp up from the counter where she had left it lying, he added politely, "Allow me to put it on for you," and did. "You are so nice," said she, "that I am going to begin to buy my post cards here, too."

Reasonable Explanation.

Perhaps the idea that two can live as cheaply as one originated in the mind of a young fellow who boarded with his father-in-law.

Horticultural Advice

BEST TIME TO PRUNE TREES

Delay Work Until Danger of Winter Killing Is Past—Sometimes Desirable to Prune in Summer.

Questions are often asked about the desirability of early winter pruning of orchard trees. Some people have a notion that early pruning causes more watersprouts and heavy growth than will be the case if the pruning is delayed until late winter. Others are fearful of cutting limbs after the sap begins to flow or after buds have started.

The horticultural department at the Ohio College of Agriculture states that as a general rule winter pruning promotes wood growth, while summer pruning checks growth of trees. It makes no difference, then, at what time during the dormant season the pruning is done, the effect on tree growth will be the same. However, there is a certain advantage in delaying the pruning until late winter. There is always danger of a certain amount of winter killing of twigs and smaller limbs. Pruning after this danger is over will obviate any necessity of pruning twice. Then, too, where wounds are made early in the winter the freezing and thawing is apt to check wood growth and to dry the tissues so that a prompt healing is hindered and sometimes prevented.

In case trees are making too vigorous a growth, it is sometimes desirable to prune them in summer. However, summer pruning, to be effective, must take place just after the terminal buds have completed their growth. This is usually during the latter part of June. Later pruning simply starts new wood growth and defeats the pruner's objects.

These general principles of pruning apply to all fruit trees of all classes and ages.

CARING FOR THE PLUM TREE

More Injury Caused by Trimming Them Than From any Other Cause—Keep the Saws Out.

Keep saw and trimming shears out of your plum tree, says a writer. Just cut off the dead limb and if some limb so interferes with another one that it must be cut off, then do it. I have injured more trees by trimming them in the earlier days of my plum raising than from any other cause.

Spray the trees just before the buds open with lime-sulphur one to ten, thin after the fruit has set with lime-sulphur, one to forty, adding three pounds arsenate of lead to the barrel, which will be beneficial to destroy the brown rot. This spraying may be repeated every ten days, but must not be used within four or five weeks of ripening of the fruit.

Cut down or dig up old trees when they have lost their vigor and set out new ones. Dig a hole as big as a bushel basket at least in which to set the tree. Put some good rich loam in the hole, and a half-peck of wood ashes turned in after the small roots are covered will be found beneficial.

STONY SOILS FOR ORCHARDS

Often Recommended as Desirable for Fruit—Soil Must Be Brought to Productive State.

A stony loam is often recommended as desirable fruit soil, but stones are advantageous only in that they may help a soil that is too heavy or clayey or too impervious, by making it some what more pervious to water. The fact that a soil is stony does not necessarily imply that it is productive.

If apples are to be grown with profit, and competition is keen, the soil must be productive or at least capable of being brought to a productive state and so maintained.

Much of the current belief that "stony" soils possess some peculiar advantage for orchard fruits has undoubtedly arisen from the success of

Mrs. Powell Almost Dead.

Dry Ridge, Ky.—"I could hardly walk across the room," says Mrs. Lodia Powell, of Dry Ridge, "before I tried Cardui. I was so poorly, I was almost dead. Now I can walk four miles and do my work with much more ease. I praise Cardui for my wonderful cure." Cardui is successful in benefiting sick women, because it is composed of ingredients, that act specifically on the womanly constitution, relieving headache, backache, irregularity, misery and distress. Only a good medicine could show such continual increase in popularity as Cardui has, for the past 50 years. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic.—Advertisement.

Special Demonstration and Sale

$8.00 SET
Of Granite and Copper Ware
FREE With Every Majestic Range Sold.

GREAT MAJESTIC RANGES

ONE WEEK ONLY Monday, May 15 to Saturday Night, May 20 ONE WEEK ONLY

SAVE $8.00

As a special inducement during our demonstration week only, with every MAJESTIC RANGE sold (prices always the same), we will give free, one handsome set of ware as illustrated here.

Every piece of this ware is the best of its kind. Not a piece that is not needed in every kitchen. It cannot possibly be bought for less than $8.00. This ware is on exhibition at our store. DON'T FAIL TO SEE IT.

WHAT SHALL IT BE?

Do you intend to continue laboring, burning valuable fuel and destroying high-priced food with that old worn-out cook stove?

You KNOW that old stove eats up a lot of fuel each year.

You KNOW you have trouble in getting it to bake just right, in fact spoil a batch of bread every once in a while—you know it costs considerable for yearly repairs.

Stop and think and figure. Wouldn't it pay you to buy a good range—a range with a reputation—

THE GREAT MAJESTIC Malleable and Charcoal Iron RANGE

You make no mistake in buying the GREAT MAJESTIC—it's the range with THE REPUTATION—ask your neighbors. Then, too, it's made just right and of the right kind of material—MALLEABLE AND CHARCOAL IRON—riveted together practically air tight—lined with pure asbestos—parts being malleable can't break—has a movable reservoir and an oven that doesn't warp—that's why the MAJESTIC uses so little fuel, bakes just right every day in the year (browns bread just right all over without turning), heats 15 gallons of water while breakfast is cooking—properly handled lasts a lifetime, and costs practically nothing for repairs.

Don't buy the range you expect to last a lifetime "unsight unseen"; you'll be sure to be disappointed. Come to our store during demonstration week, see the GREAT MAJESTIC—have its many exclusive features explained—find out why the MAJESTIC is 300 per cent stronger than other ranges where most ranges are weakest.

MAJESTIC RANGES ARE MADE IN ALL SIZES AND STYLES

ON-LEGS IF DESIRED

MAJESTIC NEVER-BURN COOKER-STEAMER-COLLENDER-AND-DRAINER-HEAVY STAMPED IRON-MARBLEIZED-KETTLE: 18 OZ. ALL-COPPER-TEA-KETTLE: 14 OZ. ALL-COPPER-COFFEE-POT.

HEAVY-MARBLEIZED-PUDGING-PAN-1 LARGE NEVER-BURN WIRED-DIPPING-PAN: 2 SMALL NEVER-BURN WIRED-DIPPING-PANS-2 SMALL DIPPING-PANS-CAN ALSO BE USED AS ROASTER.

THIS SET OF WARE FREE

DON'T OVERLOOK THE DATE. THIS IS A SPECIAL INVITATION TO YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS.

SPECIAL

All during this week a special demonstrator direct from the MAJESTIC FACTORY will be glad to show you "ALL ABOUT RANGES"—show you why the MAJESTIC is the best range on earth at any price.

Come, If You Intend to Buy or Not

EDUCATION lies in KNOWING THINGS—KNOW why the oven of a range is heated—HOW the top is heated—WHY the MAJESTIC uses so little fuel—KNOW how a range is made inside and outside. This education may serve you in the future. DON'T OVERLOOK a chance to KNOW THINGS shown by one who knows. COME.

RESTORATION OF ORDER IN MEXICO

United States Intervention Proper Method, Declares Governor of Texas.

Austin, Tex., May 10.—Gov. James E. Ferguson of Texas, on his return to Austin last night issued a signed statement in which he declared that now was the proper time for the United States intervention in Mexico to restore order in that country, "if it takes ten or fifty years."

Gov. Ferguson in his statement said:

"Since we have started we may as well finish the job. A temporary protection of the border will accomplish nothing. If we catch and punish one bandit horde, another takes its place to-morrow. If a ruler is put in power to-day, he is betrayed to-morrow. Loyalty to any leader is lacking and patriotism is unknown. The ruthless spilling of American blood on American soil now gives us justification and it is now our duty to do whatever is necessary to permanently prevent a recurrence of further outrages against our people.

"Millions of starving people in Mexico cry for food and protection from the assassin band. As one who has hoped against hope that a ruler might arise to restore peace in Mexico, as one who has viewed the Mexican people for a lifetime and as one who has studied their ways and customs; as one without bias or prejudice; as one who has endorsed and now endorses the policy of the present administration; as one who has measured his words and now mindful of the position here announced and its consequences, I have come reluctantly to the conclusion that it is now the solemn duty of the United States to enter Mexico and assume control of that unfortunate country and give to the Mexican people that stability of government which they are now unable and helpless to establish, whether it takes ten or fifty years to do it. To do less will be to shirk our responsibility to our national honor and our duty to the Mexican people."

Howell High School.

The Patrons of Howell High School will serve an ice cream and strawberry supper on May 18th, Thursday evening, at 7:30. A delightful time is promised all. Come out and enjoy an evening of fun, songs and moot trial by members of High School and last but not least, eat and help us to build our cement walk. The county duplicates every dollar we raise. Everybody most cordially invited.

Very truly,

GRAZE DEATH ON TRESTLE

Special Train Saved From 50-Foot Plunge by Guard Rails.

Lexington, Ky., May 12.—Eighty senior agricultural students and several members of the faculty of Purdue university narrowly escaped death shortly before noon Monday when their special train was derailed while it was traveling over a high trestle twenty-five miles from this city. The locomotive struck an obstruction in the track and several cars were thrown from the track but all the passengers escaped injury. Only the guard rails held the coaches upright and prevented the whole train with its load of men from being plunged into a fifty-foot ravine and almost certain death.

The students are on their annual inspection trip of the big stock farm in the bluegrass state.

CENSUS FOR TWO CITIES IS GIVEN

Henderson Shows Gain While Daviess County City Loses Some.

Washington, May 12.—The census bureau made public the quinquennial census of manufacturers of Henderson and Owensboro. At Henderson the number of persons engaged in manufactures increased from 1,200 to 1,380; capital invested from $2,257,000 to $2,510,000 and value of products from $2,932,000 to $2,973,000. At Owensboro the showing is less favorable, the number of persons engaged there in manufactures decreased from 1,540 to 1,268; the capital investment from $4,294,000 to $4,058,000 and the average number of wage earners from 1,064 to 1001. The value of products, however, showed an increase at Owensboro from $3,505,000 in 1909 to $4,056,000 in 1914.

IN MEMORIAM.

Mrs. Bettie Watkins Wills departed this life April 29, 1916, at the home of her son, Phil Wills, in her 77th year. She was born in Virginia, but came to Kentucky with her parents, Louisa Wilson Watkins and Philip A.

Watkins, when quite a small girl and most all of her life was spent in Christian county, Ky. Deceased was the widow of the late Wm. W. Wills, and is survived by one daughter, Mrs. E. W. Callnon, and two sons, Phil W. and Geo. W. Wills. Mrs. Wills suffered from a severe attack of diabetes, but blood poison caused from a sore on her foot was the cause of death. She was confined to her bed two months before passing away, and bore her sufferings with great christian fortitude. All that her devoted daughter, kind friends and nurse could do, was done to make her last days comfortable. Deceased had been a member of Locust Grove Baptist church about forty years and her funeral was preached at the church by her pastor, Rev. H. E. Gabby, and the burial took place at the Watkins burying ground near Beverly.

Mrs. Wills was a near relative of President Wilson—their grandfathers were brothers. A devoted mother, a kind and good neighbor, who took a delight in entertaining her friends, has gone to her heavenly home to await our coming, where troubles cease to worry, where the weary are at rest.

NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that a petition has been filed in the Christian County Court to open a public road, beginning at the Hopkins County Line at Mannington, and running through the town of Mannington, over a right of way already laid off through said town, to the land of The Terry Coal & Coke Co., intersecting the Madisonville road at Old Petersburg. Said road to be about 1 mile in length, and 30 ft. wide. The Court will on Saturday, the 20th day of May, take action in the matter.

CONTESTS WILL OF HER MOTHER

Plaintiff Prays Court That Order Probating Be Set Aside.

Mrs. Sallie J. Mimms has filed a suit here contesting the will of her mother, the late Mrs. Nannie M. Jesup. The plaintiff alleges in her petition that the document purporting to be the last will and testament of the deceased, and the codicils thereto, is not the true last will and testament of her mother and prays that the order admitting it to probate be set aside and the document declared void and held for naught and the property distributed under the provisions of the law.

The defendants named are William E. Jesup, Sadie D. Jesup, Eulah W. Jesup and Robert Jesup, the last three being infants for whom the Planters Bank & Trust Company is guardian; W. H. Jesup and the City Bank & Trust Company, executors of the will.
